Marc Nasser, District Manager of Don Sebastiani & Sons, guides us on an appellation tasting. Come prepared to gain an in-depth knowledge of the various Californian wine regions by tasting a range of varietals and expect to cover locales like Napa, Paso Robles, and Sonoma. Also, learn about the viniculture, flavors and winemaking techniques that distinguish each. From rookie to expert, this event is designed for those who know a little about wine but would like to expand their foundation knowledge. This is also for those who are well-versed in vino but want to learn more about wines from California.

Scentsfully Yours: An Exploration of Fragrance |

Tuesday, July 10th, 7:00 p.m. Sue Phillips, fragrance expert and founder of Scenterprises, will take you on a perfume-filled journey to learn about the magic and mystery behind scents. Undoubtedly, this will be an educational and "scentertaining" event. Take Phillips' fun quiz and your answers will reveal if you love light, refreshing citrus notes; feminine, alluring florals; sensual, spicy orientals; or warm, woody powdery blends. Then receive a sample of your preferred aroma at the fraction of a cost. Our sense of smell is tied to memory, emotion and taste — this is sure to be an event you will savor forever!

Phillips works behind the scenes for iconic fragrance brands like Tiffany's & Co and Burberry. She recently appeared at Saks Fifth Avenue and Lord & Taylor for Mother's Day and guided many to experience new beautiful blends.

$25 per member and $35 per guest plus tax and service charge by Tuesday, July 3rd. $35 per member and $45 per guest for late reservations. Program includes one house beverage, dry snacks and crudités.

Adrian Walter Ginzburg and Cindy Cirlin, Program Committee

Please note our updated schedule of operation:

The Main Dining Room will be closed for the summer season beginning Friday, June 29th, following lunch service. It will re-open on September 4th.

GENERAL MANAGER'S Corner

Ah, summer! The air is warmer, the pace is slower, the challenges of winter are but a distant memory, and life is just plain easier. It is a time when we consider taking a much needed break from our daily tasks and put into motion those well crafted plans for that much anticipated vacation. As you embark on your travels, keep in mind that in all likelihood, you will not be too far from the Penn Club. Our wide ranging list of reciprocal clubs stands ready to serve you wherever you may be. Please keep in mind that a letter of introduction is required for usage of any of our reciprocal clubs. These letters can be arranged through our Administrative Office, and it would be a good idea to have them sent before you head off on your travels. That way you will not run the risk of trying to make your arrangements at a time when the Club's offices are closed.

The House Committee has asked me to remind you that the use of cell phones, portable computers and other portable business equipment is not allowed in our Lobby, Living Room/Kite and Key Bar, Main Dining Room and Grill Room (during mealtimes). The exception to this regulation is the use of E-Readers, iPads and PDAs in their non-phone/quiet applications is permitted throughout the Clubhouse. The Penn Club is for the quiet enjoyment of all of its members and phone conversations, clicking of keyboards and audible digital entertainment are all contrary to that quiet enjoyment. We appreciate your respect of our traditions and your assistance in maintaining the decorum and spirit of our distinctly private social Club.

In addition, the House Committee recently reviewed the use of the Clubhouse in terms of our smoking policy. As I'm sure you are aware, smoking is not permitted inside the Penn Club. The one exception has been on one of our guestroom floors. Upon review, it was noted that there is now very little demand for smoking rooms at the Penn Club. As a result, the House Committee has decided to make the Club a 100% smoke-free building as of September 4, 2012. We are grateful for your cooperation and understanding with this decision.

Over the summer months, we will undergo our annual deep cleaning of the Clubhouse. The next couple of months will be used for repairs, maintenance and a general "sprucing-up" of our wonderful property. At the same time, we will review the conditions of our furniture and fixtures and make any necessary replacements. Our commitment has always been to the ongoing high quality of our facilities and services, and the enthusiastic support of the Club's Board of Directors and membership in this area has been instrumental in our ability to continuously name as one of the Platinum Clubs of America.

My staff and I look forward to being a part of your Penn Club experience, and hope you will enjoy a safe and healthy summer. We hope to see you often at your home-away-from-home in New York, and look forward to welcoming you back from your vacations and travels.

—Peter M. Homberg, CCM

Outthink the Competition and Grow Your Business

Wednesday, July 18th, 7:00 p.m. Roll up your sleeves for an interactive, mini strategy session with Wharton alum Kaihan Krippendorff. Bring your strategy challenges and throw your standard approaches out the door! Krippendorff has just published his fourth book, Outthink the Competition: How a New Generation of Strategists Sees Options Others Ignore, and will be at the Penn Club to share its insights and processes. A former McKinsey consultant, Krippendorff has emerged as a sought-after speaker and consultant, helping Microsoft, L'Oreal, Symantec, and numerous fast-growing mid-market companies develop growth strategies. Outthink the Competition profiles the next generation business strategists: the "Outthinkers." These people are entrepreneurs and corporate leaders with a new playbook who understand that competition is undergoing a fundamental paradigm shift and that during such revolutions, outthinkers beat traditionalists.

Krippendorff earned MBAs from Columbia Business School and London Business School, a BSE in Finance from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, and a BSE in engineering from the University of Pennsylvania's School of Engineering. He writes one of the most popular blogs on Fastcompany.com, and has been featured in global media outlets including Harvard Business Review, Bloomberg Businessweek, and NPR.

$15 per member and $25 per guest by Tuesday, June 19th. $25 per member and $35 per guest for late reservations.

Penn Club members in good standing are specially invited to participate in our membership affirmation ceremony. In 2011, the Membership Committee created a new tradition of member initiation ceremonies. Since many current Club members haven't had the opportunity to go through an initiation ceremony, we have created this rite of passage for longstanding members and new ones.

For your convenience, this ceremony is conducted almost weekly, on staggered week days, to maximize the opportunity that you will be able to participate while you are at the clubhouse or passing through New York City.

The ceremony is held at 12 noon and is expected to last about 20 minutes. Members are asked to be punctual and to wear a jacket with a lapel. There will be a member book signing and pinning ceremony.

Kindly RSVP online or email rsvp@pennclubny.org so that we can prepare the appropriate number of pins.

Annual All-Ivy Beer Tasting: Saison |

Thursday, August 16th, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. Considered at the turn of the millennium by some beer authorities to be an "endangered" variety, saison has seen an unparalleled resurgence in the past decade. Originally created as a refreshing, low-alcohol beverage for French farmhands (each entitled to five liters a day and few letting any go to waste), the modern-day incarnations are fuller-bodied while maintaining the yeasty tones of their ancestors. (Some saison are blended with lambic beer after fermentation is complete.) Often called "farmhouse" ales in the New World, these beers have been front and center in many competitions in the past seven years. Join us in sampling a variety of these brews origination from New York and lands further afield.

$45 per person (inclusive of tax and service charge).

Reservations due by Friday, August 10th and become final sale on that date.

Reciprocal Clubs

Penn Club members have access to about 150 reciprocal clubs worldwide. Two such examples are the reciprocal clubs below.

Milwaukee Athletic Club — Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Work Out. Network. Have Fun.

Since its founding in 1882, the Milwaukee Athletic Club has evolved into a vibrant and award-winning clubhouse. It's repeatedly recognized as one of the best city clubs in the nation and boasts a Five-Star Platinum Award. The historic building, located in the heart of Milwaukee, reflects the traditions of the Club. The facilities and services are relevant today and exceed expectations. For example, the MAC is one of the last private athletic clubs to offer separate athletic facilities for men and women. Each department has a swimming pool, steam room, sauna, and resistance and cardiovascular equipment. If you enjoy squash, racquetball, or basketball, you'll be sure to take advantage of the Club's indoor courts.

The MAC's sixty guest rooms are one of the city's best-kept secrets. The Club has four suites and three mini suites, perfect accommodations for the business traveler or a family gathering. Reciprocal Club members may use all areas of the Club while staying in-house, including complimentary use of the athletic departments.

For reservations, call the Front Desk at 414.273.4108 or e-mail frontdesk@macwi.org.

Jaisal Club — Jaisalmer, India

Camel safaris arranged on request.

Since its humble beginnings, the Jaisal Club has come a long way. The Club regards the last decade as the Golden Age, for it has been a phase of great growth. As reciprocal members, you have access to some of the finest facilities around. Beautiful, landscaped gardens with waterfalls and lush green lawns, a health club with a jacuzzi and massage service, and comfortable guest rooms. How about a game of tennis or billiards? Want to take a dip in the swimming pool or skate around the roller rink? The Jaisal Club has it all. Also enjoy table tennis, badminton and cards. If you want to explore outside of the Club grounds, book a camel for the day: safaris arranged on request. After a long day of activities, retire to one of the well-furnished, comfy guest rooms. They are all equipped with modern amenities like air conditioning and TVs. The Jaisal Club is located within Jaisalmer, the city of the golden fort. The area is spectacular, situated in the heart of the Thar Desert, and seems suddenly to rise out of the desert haze. Jaisalmer is connected by Broad Gauge rail and by National Highway roads with all cities.

For reservations, e-mail blackstone@mailinfinity.com.

For a Letter of Introduction to any of our reciprocal clubs, please contact Barbara Nevels at bnevels@pennclubny.org or 212.403.6620.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Kendra Sandidge, Young Alumni Committee

Kendra Sandidge, College 2008

Penn Club Member Since: July 8, 2011

Lives in (City, State): New Rochelle, NY

Currently Single/Married with Kids? Married?? Kids?? I'm too young for all of that.

Hobbies: Reading, dancing, shopping, experimenting with bright Essie nail polishes & writing.

In one sentence, what do you actually do all day in your job?

Talk to people in different departments across the firm about the suppliers and services they want to onboard. It's quite interesting.

Do you have a special talent? Giving great advice. Seriously, most people aren't good at it.

Where do you like to vacation? Stone Harbor, NJ. (The Jersey Shore...but it's far from Snooki & crew.)

Why did you join the Penn Club? I wanted to meet more NYC Penn alums.

What do you often do at the Penn Club? Any event sponsored by the Young Alumni Committee. Also, I make frequent use of the complimentary coat/bag check anytime I'm in the city and have too much to carry.

What is your favorite dish? I'll take sweet over savory any day, so it'd have to be Carousel Cake's Red Velvet Cake. It's one of Oprah's favorites, and the NY Giants ate them before home games and the Super Bowl for good luck.

What's your drink? Sprite and any coconut liqueur.

Why did you choose to attend Penn (if Penn alum)? I went on a summer tour and the guide told us to close our eyes, take a deep breath, and try to envision ourselves as freshmen studying on the green. She said we'd get a special feeling if Penn was the place for us. Of course, I felt it! And then, when I was accepted, I knew Penn felt it too.

Were you named after anyone? My middle name is from my maternal grandfather's middle name. He was Robert Lee and I'm Kendra Leane. My mother found my first name in a sewing magazine.

If you were a crayon, what color would you be? Lavender

What book are you currently reading? Skippy Dies. I read it last year, and it's one of my favs. (Thank goodness I finished the final 50 Shades of Grey 2 weeks ago.)

Who's your favorite person living or dead, real or fictional (excluding family)? Carrie Bradshaw. I'm currently saving for Manolo Blahnik strappy sandals & a quilted leather Chanel bag.

What's the last thing you saw on Broadway? Billy Elliot.

How often do you eat out? Usually every Friday night.

What's hanging above your sofa? A replica of Vincent van Gogh's "Starry Night." I like to tell guests that I painted it, but really, I snagged it for super cheap at a sidewalk sale three years ago.

How much is too much to spend on a haircut? It's hard to spend more than $80 at the hair salon or $15 for a manicure.

When's bedtime? 11:00 p.m.

When's the last time you drove a car? Yesterday. It's not the biggest deal in Westchester.
